OUR HISTORY

Nspired was born when Amy Kilpatrick developed a training program for a non-profit organization that helped men and women transitioning in life. The name came from Amy's faith background and desire to develop a company based on those beliefs. Through mutual friends, Amy met David Crumbaugh, as these friends thought, since both were accountants, they would "speak the same language."

They did more than speak the same language. They shared the faith background, a passion for networking, and a similar mindset for how to network and to train others to network. Their unique business backgrounds give Amy and David a perspective that business entrepreneurs relate to.

They have developed interactive, high-energy workshops, using humor, personal stories, and audience participation to get the business professionals they train involved, engaged, and learning networking skills unavailable anywhere else.

Amy and David have presented to a wide variety of business professionals and organizations across the United States on networking. They also have been interviewed on various radio programs, published articles in various mediums, and host weekly networking telebridge calls, training professionals across the country on networking.

WHO'S BEEN NSPIRED?

"Connect the Dots is the most revolutionary training on developing target markets and networking I have seen."

Gail Stolzenburg, Author

"Amy and David really started that "why didn't I think of this before?!" process. Who'd of thought "dynamic" and "accountants" would be used in the same sentence?"

Gary Wood, MBA, Houston, TX

"I had so much fun just watching David and Amy do such an awesome job during your breakout session. I look forward to supporting you in your future endeavors with Nspired."

Kathy David, Owner, IT TechPros, Inc., San Diego and co-author, The Power of Leadership - Finding the Leader Within

"Get Connected 2009 was an impactful event. Those who made the trip to sunny St. Petersburg certainly got their money's worth. Coming from Alaska, I was committed to make sure I received some great information. The highlight for me was the simple and profound concepts taught by Amy Kilpatrick and David Crumbaugh in their "Connecting the Dots" program. Their company is called Nspired Networking. I must say I was, and continue to be inspired by the empowering concepts taught by Amy and David. They have helped me to be more specific in defining my target market."

Bob Nicoll, Author, Remember the Ice and Other Paradigm Shifts, Eagle River, AK

TM

"Thank you for taking the time to do an additional group meeting with us about connecting the dots. There is no doubt in my mind that if I focus on that one "stupidly simple" idea this year I will be able to raise the bar with everyone in my chapters and reach my goals.

Thanks for making a positive difference in my life!"

“The "In Crowd" presentation inspired an easy to follow approach and diagram for myself and my company (Catalyst Consulting Group) to implement as our networking goal. I was able to easily present the approach to the rest of my team in an understandable obtainable format. In other words, it all makes sense and isn't one of those ideas that never get followed through or results never seen. This approach to networking will prove to be a very valuable tool to our future success!! “

Mary White, Vice President at Catalyst Consulting Group LLC, Green Bay, WI

“I am very excited about the Nspired way. It is soooooo simple...which always puts the impetus on organization and execution. Media sales people and ad sales people are already trained to think the way you're thinking. They're not taught to execute and organize the way you are teaching.”

Tim Dillard, Tops in Texas

“The "IT Factor" is an exceptionally effective coaching tool, especially when responding to a business networker who complains about not getting enough referrals... An "Ah-Ha" or "BFO" (blinding flash of the obvious) moment occurs when I contrast an (I)nter-mercial with a Sales Manager (T)raining Minute... The "IT FACTOR" is a must see presentation for the business networker who wants to take their business to the next level.”

Kirk Johnson, Director, PrePaid Legal Services and Area Director, BNI Northern Virginia

“This is one of the most powerful 1 hour sessions you can be a part of. If you have not had the opportunity to sit/listen during one of these sessions you are really missing what is in store for you and your business! To really understand the who about networking is the key and this is designed to help you understand that. Easy example is this: let's just say that one of your target markets is small business owners. You would assume that you wanna network with small business owners, right? YOU COULD NOT BE MORE WRONG! Find out why with this session. Sit in or call in to this session. It could change your life! “

Andy Passmore, Wells Fargo Mortgage, Augusta, GA (commenting on our weekly networking telebridge calls, every Thursday at 7 p.m. EDT and Friday at 8:30 a.m. EDT)

“I wanted to let you know that I have been utilizing the information I learned from Friday's call. We had several guests today, and after I did my 45 seconds, one of our guests approached me and told me that she NEEDS me and my services; she is in real estate and a potential platinum goose for me. Another benefit was that members of the chapter came up to me to say....'oh my goodness, I didn't even know you did that!' It is amazing how things can change when you focus on the “T” rather than the “I”. Thank you so much for telling me about the Friday calls, it is already changing my business. I have forwarded the information to the chapter again; I really hope they are on the calls.”

Vanessa Bauer, Southern Living at Home Consultant (commenting on our weekly networking telebridge calls, every Thursday at 7 p.m. EDT and Friday at 8:30 a.m. EDT)
