

Joe Orsak

Nspired Trainer

Joseph “Joe” Orsak is the currently a partner in and the marketing and information technology director for Improve My Credit USA. His day company covers all things image. The branding and positioning of the IMC USA service is his passion. His career as a professional photographer, public speaker, and his extensive IT background (including being a Microsoft Certified Professional) help him bring Improve My Credit USA to the market in a powerful and artistic way.

Joe was the weekly Host of the “Retire with Real Estate” show for 3 years which aired for 1 year on 1070AM Biz Talk radio and for 2 Years on 100.7 FM KKHT. He has been asked to appear on numerous radio talk shows discussing multiple topics ranging from the impact of divorce on credit, the basics of understanding credit and its role in your life, and the real estate market climate. Joe is also a professional motivational speaker who has spoken in numerous settings ranging from corporate and scholastic, to religious.

Joe’s entrepreneurial bug started as a child. He began his first business at 10 mowing yards, saved money and launched his second business “Joe’s Snow” and became the youngest member of the chamber of commerce even having the mayor out for the ribbon cutting in his hometown of Columbus Texas. He is also the previous owner of The Computer Guys which he locally operated for 11 years.

An ordained minister whose license is held by the Baptist Missionary Association, Joe engages the Islamic community worldwide in conversation via the internet about the differences and misunderstandings between Islam and Christianity and is using that ongoing dialogue to complete his near finished “Discussion with Islam (Common questions from Muslims).”
